

„Night Crossing”

A British train has arrived at a station somewhere in the south of England. Military personnel are preparing to embark. Lights are temporarily lit to facilitate the loading/unloading of goods. An officer's wife has come to see her husband off to war, and they walk their dog along the track. Suddenly, a Luftwaffe Do-217 bomber of KG-2 appears out of the blackness of the night sky, and with engines at full throttle races for home. Overall size: 34" x 24"
